

Satallite radio providers should be allowed to provide whatever programming they want. Let the consumer decide what they listen to and where they get ther news / entertainment from.